

This is the name for the male organ that allows urine ('pee') and semen to leave the body	Penis
This is the name for the stinky smell left by dried sweat	Body Odour (B.O)
This is also known as 'menstruation' and is something that happens to women and girls once a month. The average amount of blood lost during this time is only about 2 tablespoons over 3-7 days.	Period
This is the name for something that happens to boys when they have an erection in their sleep and ejaculate semen.	Wet Dream
This is the name for hair that grows around the genitals and pubic area in both boys and girls during puberty.	Pubic Hair
This is the name for when more blood flows to the penis than usual and so the penis becomes larger and harder and stands away from the body.	Erection
This is the name for a body part that hangs outside of a male's body. They are the size of small plums and are part of the male genitals that make sperm.	Testicles (or testes)
This is the name for something that grows under and on the arms and legs for both boys and girls. Boys often get it on their chests, stomachs, shoulders, back, hands and feet.	Body Hair
This is the name for a body part. The main purpose for these in women is to produce milk for feeding babies.	Breasts
This is the part of a female's body where menstrual blood will flow out of during a period.	Vagina